COMPENSATORY DAMAGES

Judge: The Honorable Sunshine
Sykes
Trial Date: None set
Action Filed: May 6, 2024

21 Defendant Rob Bonta, in his official capacity as Attorney General of the State 22 of California, answers Plaintiff Brownstein's first amended complaint (FAC) as 23 follows:

24 1. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 1 are Plaintiff's 25 characterization of his case and his summary and conclusions of law, no answer is 26 required. To the extent paragraph 1 contains any factual allegations, the Attorney 27 General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of those 28 allegations, and on that basis denies the allegations in paragraph 1. Except as

1 specifically admitted, the Attorney General denies the allegations in paragraph 1.

2 2. The Attorney General admits that he is generally responsible for 3 enforcing the laws of the State of California, including Penal Code section 4 26202(a)(3). The Attorney General further admits that he is sued only in his 5 official capacity. Except as specifically admitted, the Attorney General denies the 6 allegations in paragraph 2.

7 3. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 8 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 3, and on that basis denies the allegations in 9 paragraph 3.

10 4. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 11 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 4, and on that basis denies the allegations in 12 paragraph 4.

13 5. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 5 are Plaintiff's conclusions of 14 law, no answer is required. The Attorney General admits that Plaintiff submitted 15 his fingerprints to the Department of Justice via Live Scan on February 5, 2024.
16 Except as specifically admitted, the Attorney General denies the allegations in 17 paragraph 5.

18 6. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 6 are Plaintiff's 19 characterization of his case and conclusions of law, no answer is required. To the 20 extent paragraph 6 contains any factual allegations, Attorney General lacks 21 sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of the allegations in paragraph 22 6, and on that basis denies the allegations in paragraph 6. Except as specifically 23 admitted, the Attorney general denies the allegations in paragraph 6.

24 7. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 25 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 7, and on that basis denies the allegations in 26 paragraph 7.

27 8. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 28 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 8, and on that basis denies the allegations in

1 paragraph 8.

2 9. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 3 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 9, and on that basis denies the allegations in 4 paragraph 9.

5 10. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 10 are Plaintiff's 6 characterization of his case and conclusions of law, no answer is required. To the 7 extent paragraph 10 contains any factual allegations, the Attorney General lacks 8 sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations, and on 9 that basis denies the allegations in paragraph 10. Except as specifically admitted, 10 the Attorney General denies the allegations in paragraph 10.

11 11. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 11 are Plaintiff's 12 characterization of his case and conclusions of law, no answer is required. To the 13 extent paragraph 11 contains any factual allegations, the Attorney General lacks 14 sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations, and on 15 that basis denies the allegations in paragraph 11. Except as specifically admitted, 16 the Attorney general denies the allegations in paragraph 11.

17 12. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 18 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 12, and on that basis denies the allegations
19 in paragraph 12.

20 13. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 21 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 13, and on that basis denies the allegations
22 in paragraph 13.

23 14. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 24 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 14, and on that basis denies the allegations
25 in paragraph 14.

26 15. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 27 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 15, and on that basis denies the allegations
28 in paragraph 15.

1       16. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 2 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 16, and on that basis denies the allegations
3 in paragraph 16.

4       17. The Attorney General admits that the docket in this matter reflects that 5 Plaintiff's original complaint was filed on May 6, 2024, and the FAC was filed on 6 August 18, 2024. Except as specifically admitted, the Attorney General denies the 7 allegations in paragraph 17.

8       18. The Attorney General admits that the California Department of Justice 9 was served with Plaintiff's original complaint and summons on May 15, 2024, and 10 the Attorney General's counsel received electronic notification that the FAC was 11 filed on August 18, 2024. Except as specifically admitted, the Attorney General 12 denies the allegations in paragraph 18.

13       19. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 14 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 19, and on that basis denies the allegations
15 in paragraph 19.

16       20. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 20 are Plaintiff's 17 characterization of his case and conclusions of law, no answer is required. The 18 Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of the 19 allegations in paragraph 20, and on that basis denies the allegations in paragraph 20.
20 Except as specifically admitted, the Attorney General denies the allegations in 21 paragraph 20.

22       21. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 21 are Plaintiff's 23 characterization of his case and conclusions of law, no answer is required. To the 24 extent paragraph 21 contains any factual allegations, the Attorney General lacks 25 sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations, and on 26 that basis denies the allegations in paragraph 21. Except as specifically admitted, 27 the Attorney General denies the allegations in paragraph 21.

28       22. The Attorney General admits that the Superior Court of California,

1 County of Orange issued a minute order on August 6, 2024, with respect to People
2 of the State of California vs. Brownstein, case number 30-2024-01403673-CU-JR-
3 C-JC, and the order states that the case was initiated on June 4, 2024. To the extent 4 paragraph 22 contains any factual allegations, the Attorney General lacks sufficient 5 information to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations, and on that basis 6 denies the allegations in paragraph 22. Except as specifically admitted, the 7 Attorney General denies the allegations in paragraph 22.

8 23. The Attorney General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to 9 the truth of the allegations in paragraph 23, and on that basis denies the allegations
10 in paragraph 23.

11 24. The Attorney General admits that the Superior Court of California, 12 County of Orange issued a minute order on August 6, 2024, with respect to People
13 of the State of California vs. Brownstein, case number 30-2024-01403673-CU-JR-14 C-JC. The Attorney General further admits that the minute order states in part that 15 “[t]he People have met their burden by a preponderance of the evidence that the 16 applicant is a disqualified person in accordance with Section 26202 of the Penal 17 Code.” To the extent paragraph 24 contains any factual allegations, the Attorney 18 General lacks sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of those 19 allegations, and on that basis denies the allegations in paragraph 24. Except as 20 specifically admitted, the Attorney General denies the allegations in paragraph 24.

21 25. To the extent the allegations in paragraph 25 are Plaintiff’s 22 characterization of his case and conclusions of law, no answer is required. To the 23 extent paragraph 25 contains any factual allegations, the Attorney General lacks 24 sufficient information to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations, and on 25 that basis denies the allegations in paragraph 25. Except as specifically admitted, 26 the Attorney General denies the allegations in paragraph 25.

27 26. The Attorney General denies that Plaintiff is entitled to any of the relief 28 requested on page 6, lines 19-28, or page 7, lines 1-2, or any relief whatsoever. To

1 the extent Plaintiff's Prayer for Relief contains any allegations to which a response 2 is required, the Attorney General denies them.

3 AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

4 In addition to the foregoing responses to the FAC, and without admitting any 5 allegations therein, the Attorney General asserts the following affirmative defenses 6 based on information and belief:

7 FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

8 The FAC, and each claim for relief alleged in the FAC, fails to state facts 9 sufficient to constitute a cause of action against the Attorney General.

10 SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

11 Plaintiff fails to satisfy his burden of proof to support a facial constitutional 12 challenge to California state law.

13 THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

14 Plaintiff's claims are barred because he lacks standing to bring them.

15 FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

16 The FAC, and each cause of action alleged in the FAC, is improper because 17 Plaintiff has an adequate remedy at law.

18 FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

19 The FAC, and each cause of action alleged in the FAC, is barred by the 20 equitable doctrines of estoppel, laches, unclean hands, and/or waiver.

21 SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

22 To the extent the Attorney General has undertaken any conduct with regard to 23 the subjects and events underlying the FAC, such conduct was, at all times material 24 to this case, undertaken in good faith and in reasonable reliance on existing law.

25 SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

26 The Attorney General has not knowingly or intentionally waived any 27 applicable affirmative defense. The Attorney General reserves the right to assert 28 and reply upon other such affirmative defenses as may become available or 1 apparent during discovery proceedings or as may be raised or asserted by others in 2 this case, and to amend the Answer or affirmative defenses accordingly. The 3 Attorney General further reserves the right to amend the Answer to delete 4 affirmative defenses that he determines are not applicable after subsequent 5 discovery.

6 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

7 Defendant respectfully requests that:

- 8 1. Plaintiff takes nothing by the FAC;
9 2. Judgment be entered in favor of the Attorney General; 10 3. The Attorney General be awarded costs incurred in defending this action; 11 and 12 4. The Attorney General be awarded such further relief that the Court may 13 deem just and proper.

14 Dated: September 20, 2024

Respectfully submitted,

15 ROB BONTA
16 Attorney General of California
